New Story

"So always remember _it is better to be late than never._"

RIIIINN>NNNNNNNNNGGGGGG

With this ring our homeroom class came to an end which taught us a stupid moral "_It is better to be late than nerver_"

Man! Really is this moral so important to follow? I mean why would someone be late to do something if he really wishes to do that thing?

"Stand up" told your monitor."Greet"

"Thank you,sensei!" we all told in -sensei putted on a smile on her face and gave me a gaze which meant that _That moral was for you!DAMN HIKIGAYA!_ scarry.

Is there nobody who can marry your beloved sensei?

"Hey,hikki! You going to club today?"asked yuigahama with her hands above her head.I guess She was bored due to hiratsuka-sensei's story.

_Damn sensei!What to you intended to mean with that gaze? I am very good with my current position in the society. Friendship is a emotion that is bound to give you pain either when your friend betrays you and tell your secrets to others or you if have some quarrel with that friend of yours which is going to hurt you. But damn you sensei, due to your suggestion I joined the service club and now i am feeling that some kind of EMOTION is growing inside me towards my fellow club members._

"Yes,I think i would go to the clubroom I don't see a reason why I would not go there."

"Actually today it seems that yukinoshita-san is not present today"

It is very rare to see her absent if its not so last time I remember seeing her absent was when she was ill due to the work pressure from managing the cultural festival event.

"SO? What to do preffer doing rather than going to the clubroom?"

"I was thinking of visiting yukinoshita's apartment to see if she was know the last time she was absent how she was."

"I think you are not so dumb as I thought you to be"

"What do you mean by that?How rude!"

"Okay,lets go now"

>We came to the ground floor of the apartment and yuigahama is talking to yukinoshita over the told me to not to go in front of the telecom otherwise yukinoshita-san might not allow us in as she might feel insecure of her virginity seeing me.

"Hikki! Lets go inside she gave _us_ the permission to enter"

Us,do you mean us that means she knows i am coming to her apartment?But you told that if ahe finds this out she will not allow us to ! This girl is Unbelievable.

"O-Okay"

We entered the room _by you i meant yuigahama first and then I._

"Hi-Hikigaya-kun?"

I knew she didn't told yukinoshita about me.

" was worried so i tagged along I have seen you so i guess there is no meaning to enter anymore."

Yukinoshita enbraced herself and told "What to do mean by _seeing me_?"

"I-It meant that now I have seen that you are fine so-"

Yukinoshita interrupted and she told "I know,I was joking Yuigahama told me about you and also told me how you insulted her when she told to see I thought I should give you a lesson for this"

What?! Are you two in some kind of relationship?

"Oi! What do you mean by a lesson? By the way I should get going now."

"Wait,it is thought impolite of someone who doesn't treat her guest in a proper way so COME in"
